

In the Court of Appeals of the State of Alaska

Ronald Guthrie,

Appellant,

v.

State of Alaska,

Appellee.

Court of Appeals No. A-13620

Opening Notice

Appellate Rule 204

Date of Notice: 4/17/2020

Trial Court Case No. 3PA-14-03409CR

On 2/27/2020, Appellant filed an appeal of Judge White's final judgment and order distributed on 2/7/2020. Attorneys whose names and addresses are correct on this notice need not file an entry of appearance. All documents filed by a party who is not represented by counsel shall include an address at which that party can be served.

The caption in this case will be as shown above. In accordance with Appellate Rule 204(g), all parties to the trial court proceedings when the final order/judgment was entered are parties to the appeal. A party who files a notice of appeal, whether separately or jointly, is an Appellant under these rules. All other parties are deemed to be Appellees, regardless of their status in the trial court. An Appellee may elect at any time not to participate in the appeal by filing and serving a notice of non-participation.

The notice of completion of preparation of file is due from the Appellate Court Records Office (ACRO) on or before 5/27/2020. The record in this appeal will include only the documents and proceedings in the trial court case referenced above. If either party believes that the record should contain documents or proceedings from any other related case, that party should file an appropriate motion.
